I would be willing to work in southwest Mississippi in Chancery Court or other lower courts but I'm not interested in jury trials and big Circuit Court cases. I'm a pen writer if it makes a difference but I am bonded, certified, AOC, Official for 27 years with 17th Chancery Court District, starting in 1981. I am still working Chancery in Adams, Claiborne, Jefferson and Wilkinson Counties but do have some days off and could fill in at times.

I live in Neshoba County, but my last district was comprised of six counties, which extended to Carroll County, 98 miles from my home. I will fill in in Court, when needed. I already know what the pay is, plus the mileage.

For your info, I quit an official job in May 2007, and have all my bonding, etc., necessary to fill in for official court reporters.

I'm in Lafayette County, Oxford. In my freelancing business, I cover most of North MS (including Jackson). Last year I did some court work with Chancery Judge Glenn Alderson in while Jean Sparks, his reporter, was recuperating.

I am currently registered with the AOC. I live in Lamar County, but have subbed in Forrest County, Jones County, Wayne County, Marion County, Greene County, George County, Covington County, Jasper County, I will be willing to sub anywhere within a 125 mile range.....if given enough head notice. I currently stay pretty booked and would need a reasonable amount of time to rearrange my schedule if I have to.
